

NATIVE WITNESS

Indians in the Shafer

January 22—February 20

January 22—Opening Reception

January 22—February 20

Native Witness Film Series: featuring short films by Bently Spang

- premiere 1:30 pm January 22
- screenings through February 20

• Bently Spang is an internationally recognized multi-disciplinary artist, curator, educator and writer working in mixed media sculpture, video, performance, and installation. An enrolled member of the Northern Cheyenne Nation in Montana, Spang's work reveals the complexity of his daily traverse of multiple cultural terrains with pragmatism, humor and deep introspection.

Navaho Chief Blankets from the Collection of Bob Button & Selections from the permanent collection

January 27— John Two-Hawks

- Friday 2:00 pm free public lecture presentation
- Friday 7:00 pm free concert / Native Flute

All events in the Barton Community College Fine Arts Auditorium

• Renowned GRAMMY & Emmy nominated, Platinum Award winning Indigenous flutist, singer and musician John Two-Hawks is in a class by himself. Highly adept with a myriad of world instruments, Two-Hawks is best known as a preeminent master of the American Indian flute, that and his powerful singing voice has earned him international acclaim. John's concert performances captivate audiences with the ancient beauty of his music, and the profound wisdom of his Lakota teachings .

Native Witness Brown Bag Lecture Series : Tuesdays and Thursdays @ 12:00 noon in the Shafer Gallery January 31 –February 14

- Alone With Ghosts: Art and Native Identity
- Introduction to Navaho Blankets
- Kiowa 7 and the Origins of a Native Style
- Native American Legends and Myths
- Contemporary Native American Artists

At the L.E. "Gus" and Eva Shafer Memorial Gallery on the Campus of Barton Community College, Great Bend, KS